

Homework Task – Speaking up in the news

Read a newspaper and find examples of recent news stories where people have been brave about speaking up and making a positive difference by using their voice.

Secondary Pupils:

- 1) Research two examples of news stories that you feel are contrasting in their subject or approach.
It may be:
 - A past story and present story
 - A story from the UK and an international story
 - An individual using their voice and an organisation speaking out
 - By occupation e.g a sports star and a celebrity speaking out.
 - By technique e.g a protest and its impact and a digital campaign and its impact.

- 2) Write at least half a page explaining why you chose the two articles, explore what made them stand out to you and compare and contrast the similarities and differences between them.

Extension: Write an essay plan for a 1,000 word essay that would compare and contrast your two news articles in detail.
