Read the scenarios below with your teacher. Think about them carefully and answer the questions…

> Some children in Tags' school have decided they don't like Tag and his friends. They have copied some photos of Tag and his friends from the school website and they have edited the pictures to make Tag and his friends look ugly and stupid. Then they posted the new photo they have created onto their social media sites and lots of people have commented on them.

Is this cyberbullying? Why do you think that?

_____

_____

Who are the cyberbullies?

_____

Who are the targets?

_____

How do you think Tag and his friends feel?

_____

What advice would you offer to Tag and his friends?

_____

_____

_____

Read the scenarios below with your teacher. Think about them carefully and answer the questions…

Tag is playing a game online with some of his friends from school. There is a player in their group who they do not recognise. The unknown player starts sending mean messages to Tag and his friends, calling them names and telling them they are useless at the game.

Is this cyberbullying? Why do you think that?

_____

_____

Who is the cyberbully?

_____

Who are the targets?

_____

How do you think Tag and his friends feel?

_____

What advice would you offer to Tag and his friends?

_____

_____

_____